

User: what was supposed to come next after homeschooling?

Kimi: Based on the priority order you set in the conversation history, DUI / Implied Consent was supposed to come next after Homeschooling Laws.

Your explicit queue was:

1. Homeschooling Laws - Done (all 50 states, 5 batches complete)
2. DUI / Implied Consent - Next up
3. Abortion Access
4. Voting Rights / Voter ID
5. Workplace Rights / At-Will Employment

At the time you set that order, the site had 207 entries across 4 topics (Traffic Stops, Tenant Rights, Stand Your Ground, and Marijuana Laws) plus the just-completed Homeschooling Laws. DUI / Implied Consent was flagged as a natural extension of Traffic Stops with high search volume for questions like "Can I refuse a breathalyzer?"

User: DUI / Implied Consent - Next up

Kimi: DUI / Implied Consent queued. Researching all 50 states now. Starting with Batch 1 (CA, TX, FL, NY, PA, IL, OH, GA, NC, MI).

Now I have research on all 10 states. Let me compile the compliance-grade entries and write them to disk.

Batch 1 of DUI / Implied Consent is complete. All 10 files are on disk and verified.

What's in Each Entry

Every file carries the compliance-grade citation layer:

- Named instruments (statute sections with citations)
- Verbatim quotes anchored to character offsets
- Live links to official statute databases
- Repeal checks with current status
- Verdicts summarizing the practical rule
- Refusal penalty tables by offense number
- Blood vs. breath distinctions (warrant requirements)
- Cross-state comparison tables
- Recording consent rules (one-party vs. two-party by state)

Key Distinctions Captured in Batch 1

State	Refusal Penalty	Distinctive Feature
CA	1 year first refusal	Blood test preserves sample for independent retesting; breath does not
TX	180 days first refusal	DIC-24 warning required; 15-day deadline for ALR hearing

| FL | 1 year + misdemeanor | As of Oct. 2025, first refusal is a second-degree misdemeanor (new) |
| NY | 1-year revocation | Harsher than most states - revocation, not suspension; 30-min
attorney/witness delay |
| PA | 12 months | Three DUI tiers; refusal treated as highest rate tier |
| IL | 12 months | Statutory summary suspension; 46-day delay before effective; unconscious = no right to refuse |
| OH | 90 days to 5 years (ALS) | Officer seizes license immediately; must read verbatim warning
from 4511.192 |
| GA | 1 year minimum | Separate notices for under 21 / 21+ / CDL; right to independent test after state's test |
| NC | 1-year revocation | 30 minutes to contact attorney/witness; officer can get warrant after refusal
| MI | 1 year + 6 points | 14-day hearing request deadline; 7-year lookback for second refusal |

Distinctive State Features Captured in Batch 2

State	Refusal Penalty	Distinctive Feature
NJ	7 months - 1 year	Officer must read Standard Statement; two clear opportunities to provide sample; right to independent test
VA	1-year revocation	3-hour test window; breath preferred, blood for drugs; certificate of analysis = prima facie evidence

WA	1-year revocation	20-day DOL hearing deadline; right to additional tests; blood requires warrant
AZ	12 months	Officer can get warrant after refusal; unconscious = no right to refuse; 84-month lookback
MA	180 days to lifetime	Escalates with priors (180d / 3yr / 5yr / lifetime); refusal admissible only if consequences explained
TN	18 months (NEW 2026)	As of Jan. 1, 2026: first refusal = 18 months; oral fluid testing added; standardized waiver required
IN	1 year	3-hour offer window; officer must inform of consequences; refusal admissible in court
MO	1-year revocation	*UNIQUE: 20 minutes to contact attorney; officer must afford private consultation; independent test right
MD	270 days	Noah's Law; ignition interlock election; refusal = enhanced criminal penalty (+2 months / +$500)
WI	1-year revocation + IID	"Informing the Accused" form required; unconscious = presumed consent; 30-day wait for occupational license
